SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16. 1738.

91^o. 1008.

Yesterday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

Petersburg, Aug. 23. O. S.

I N N E S, a Captain of the Horse Guards, arrived here Yesterday from the Velt Marshal de Munich, with the following Account of what has passed in the Russian Army since the 26th of July O. S.

On the 27th we raised several Batteries to play the Intrenchments which the Enemy had cast on the other Side of the Niefter.

On the 28th we were informed by Deserters, that the Enemy had a Design to come and attack our Army; and therefore the Troops kept to their Arms. The Enemy did indeed appear, but they skirmished with our Hussars and Cossacks, and were cannonading all that Day, and a great many Bombs were thrown on both Sides. As the Banks of the Niefter are very steep in that Part of it, the Ottoman Army, consisting of 60,000 Men, on the opposite Side in Intrenchments furnished with 60 Pieces of Cannon and 15 Mortars, and considering moreover that all the Hordes of the Tartars had their Eyes upon us, and that the Forage too began to fall short, the Passage of the River at that Part of it was judged too difficult, and was resolved to decamp next Day in quest of a more eligible Place, but especially to give the Army an Opportunity to quit their Intrenchments.

On the 29th the Army marched accordingly very early in the Morning, and went along by the little River of Bilocz, in order to be nearer that of Chokofka. We had scarce left our Camp, when the Enemy appeared on a Hill to our Left. On that Side there were several Attacks made during our March, and at Night a Body of the Enemy's Troops came nearer to our Army, but after we sent some Cannon Balls among them, they retired and retired towards the River of Moloch. It was perceived nevertheless when the Light was down, that the Enemy continued still in the Woods about our Army, from which it was judged they intended to come and attack us next Day. We were confirmed in this Conjecture by seeing a great Number of Janissaries cross the River towards us. During the Night, our Army encamped near the River of Bilocz; there being not Forage enough, we immediately laid Bridges over that small River, and some of the Troops went and incamp'd on the other Side of the River where Forage was in greater Plenty. Several of the Enemy's Parties attacked us that Night, but we were always repulsed with Vigour.

On the 30th the whole Army put themselves on Arms, to cover the Passage of the Baggage on the other Side of the River. The Enemy, consisting of 20,000 Janissaries, and several thousand Tartars, Archaus, and Asiatick Horse, approached our Army with all the Tartars of Budziac and Tatar, and attacked it in several Places, particularly the Right Wing and the Rear, commanded by Lieutenant General Charles de Biron, and they all that they could to surround us. There were also two Bodies of Janissaries, that slid along the Banks of the River Bilocz, and one of them came within Musket Shot of the Rear Guard of our Army, while the other, which came through the Vallies, and was supported by a Body of Reserve, attacked our Rear with very great Fury. Some Regiments of the Army were presently sent to reinforce our Rear, and the Command of the Prince of Brunswick, together with some of the Foot Guards under the Lieutenant General Gustavus de Biron. During the Night the Janissaries advanced near one of our Camps, which was lower down the River, where there were about 400 Men under Command of the Lieutenant Colonel Baron de Mengden, in order to attack our Head Quarters. The Baron's Party was repulsed against the Janissaries with Bayonets scattered to their Muskets, and attacked them so briskly, that he obliged them to retire with great Loss; and the Hussars of the Regiments of Stojanoff, the Cossacks of Cauquess, and some Dragoons, being sent after them, killed several, and brought away several of the Heads of the Janissaries Officers along with them.

At the same time the Lieutenant General Gustavus de Biron, fell upon the Enemy with the Grenadiers, and a Part of the Guards, so successfully, that the Infidels were forced to fly, leaving a great Number dead upon the Spot. The Grenadiers of the Regiments of the Left Wing likewise attacked the Enemy, who retired every where with very great Precipitation. After they were gone, our Army encamped on both Sides of the River of Bilocz.

In these Attacks the Enemy lost so many Men, that the Country was strewn with the dead Bodies, which they could not carry off, and our Calmucks and Cossacks took on that Day a great Booty. The Loss on our Side amounts but 281 Men killed of regular Troops, and 210 of the others; and the Number of the wounded Men amounts in the Whole to about 200.

On the 1st of August the Army continued its March; and on the 6th went and encamp'd on the little River Kamenka, where our Troops have met with plenty of Forage. During this March, the Army was forced to pass through very difficult Defiles; and the Enemy did not fail to attack us in several Places with small Parties, but were always repulsed with Loss.

'Tis said the Court has received Advice, that Lieutenant General Stoeffel, the Commandant at Oczakow, was march'd out of that Place, in hopes of taking Bilogrod, during the Absence of the Turkish Forces, the greatest Part whereof, as well as all the Tartars, were gone to join the Army of the Seraskier of Bender, and that of the Sultan of Bilogrod upon the Niefter. We are assured, that the Count de Munich's decamping on the 29th of July, gave Rise to the Report that he was return'd to the Ukraine; and that the same Report obtained the stronger Belief in the Camp of the Turks, because the Russians really struck into that Road as they march'd by the River Bilocz. They add, that upon this Supposition, above 20,000 Janissaries and Archaus passed the Niefter, against the Will of the Seraskier their General, in order, as they said, to pursue the Fugitives; but that they were so ill received, that most of them were cut to Pieces. 'Tis said the Army will continue its March along the Niefter as far as Soroka towards Choczim.

Belgrade, Aug. 23. O. S. The last Advices from the Turkish Army say, that some Days after the Taking of Orsova, the Grand Vizier detach'd some of his Troops towards Transylvania, and declar'd that he would march his Army towards this City; that he had accordingly sent Orders to all Places upon the Road to furnish Provisions and Forage, and that having at the same caused Proclamation to be made in the Army, that such as would go before Temeswar, should have an additional Gratuity, over and above their ordinary Pay, by reason of the Plague which rages in that Country; above 8000 Volunteers had offered their Service for that Expedition. We are assured, that upon this Advice, General Egelkoffen has received Orders to throw himself into Temeswar with 2000 Men. The Imperial Army is still incamp'd at Wisniza, a League from this Place, where they have laid a Bridge over the Danube to preserve a Communication with the Banat. An Officer went 4 Days ago to Panzova, in order to carry 2500 sick Persons from thence to Palanca, a Village on the other Side of the Danube near Salankemen, where they will be shelter'd from any Incursions of the Enemy.

Vienna, Aug. 30. O. S. We have had nothing new from the Army since it incamp'd at Wisniza. The Great Duke of Tuscany arrived the 22d at Presburg, and after having had a Conference there with several of the chief Lords of Hungary, he proceeded for the Army. The Bavarians are not yet arrived as was expected; but will certainly be here To-morrow or next Day. They say, that the Artillery at Orsova consisted of 118 Battering Cannon, and 26 Mortars. 'Tis given out that the Emperor will appoint Commissioners to enquire into the Motives that induced the Commander to surrender that Fortress, which, as some say, might have held out many Days longer; but 'tis like that the Commander will plead the Sickness in the Garrison for his Excuse, besides the great Scarcity of Things of the utmost Necessity. Some Accounts make the Artillery which the Germans were forced to leave behind them at Orsova, to consist of 200 Pieces of Cannon, besides a great Quantity of Ammunition. They write from Constantinople, that the Great Treasurer of the Ottoman Empire is degraded, for Prevarication in the Exercise of his Office.

WHILE Britain's PILOT steer'd with gentle Gales,

And only happy Breezes fill'd his Sails,
In want of Storms, the Passengers and Crew
Rusty with Ease and Refractory grew;
'Twas always bad, whatever Course he took,
Ill judg'd his Reck'ning, and ill kept his Book;
No Wind, they said, no Weather shou'd we fear,
If we had any one but him to steer.
While thus they rav'd, they see in distant Skies
A Cloud, or so in Fear they fancy'd, rise,
A sad Presage of Tempest! ev'ry Eye
Turns to the Pilot, but no Pilot's nigh:
A Fever in the Infant seiz'd his Frame,
And all his Vitals felt the quiv'ring Flame.

On their old Pilot in their Fright they call,
And now his Conduct is confess'd by All.
His Skill consummate, and his Care they own,
And if they have not him at Helm there's none:
They crow'd his Cabin, and in Pain inquire
How beats the Pulse, and how abates the Fire.
How right was ev'ry Course they call to Mind,
And useful were his Sails in ev'ry Wind.
Their Folly, their Ingratitude they blame,
And prove their Penitence sincere by Shame:
If Gracious Heav'n his precious Health restore,
Thy'll be those Fools, and those Ingrates, no more.

Upbraiding now they on each other look,
The Reck'ning You condemn'd, and you the Book;
When all was wise, you knew, and all was right,
And only out of Envy blam'd, and Spite;
Or wanton Wit, or Rants of giddy Youth,
Against Conviction, and the Power of Truth.

While o'er their Honour'd Pilot thus they mourn,
The kindled Fires with Force abated burn;
His Pulse beats regular, his Eyes resume
Their genuine Brightness, and shake off the Gloom.
His Vigor with his Health restor'd, the re-w
With gladden'd Hearts their wonted Work renew.
Vanish'd the Cloud, the Ship again he steers,
And Joy in ev'ry honest Face appears.

Letters of the 28th ult. from Stockholm say, that the King of Sweden has taken the Bark with such Success, that he rested pretty well for the two last Nights, and that his Fever has left him; tho' they say he is very weak, and that the Duke of Holstein Gottorp's Party begin to stir in the present Juncture.

They add, that our Envoy, Mr. Finch, having lately made a Proposal to the Swedish Dyet for concluding a new Treaty of Commerce, the Dyet examined and resolved to accept it, on Condition, that it be stipulated by one of the Articles of the Treaty, that such Swedish Ships as are met with upon the English Coast shall not be searched, and that nothing more be done, than to oblige the Masters of such Ships to produce their Bills of Lading and Passes.

We hear from Woodberry Hill Fair in Dorsetshire, that a great many Hops were brought there and not all sold. Some few Pockers sold at 5s. per Hundred; a great many at 4s. 10s. But the general Prices of bright Hops were from 3s. 10s. to 4s. Brown Hops sold from 2s. to 3s. per Hundred.

Yesterday se'night Mr. Charles Gosnell, Surveyor of his Majesty's Customs at Preston, was married to the young Widow Toanley, a Lady of good Accomplishments, and a Fortune of 3000l.

The Elizabeth and Martha, Hicks, of Southampton, bound from Cork for Dunkirk, loaded with Butter, was lost the 6th Instant on the Back of the Isle of Wight in a hard Gale of Wind: The People, Cargo, Rigging of the Vessel, with some loose Materials, are saved. The Mob came down, and would have pillaged the Whole; but the Gentlemen Farmers knowing the Concerned, defended what was saved from the Wreck.

Advice GRATIS

To Persons of either Sex

Afflicted with any Species of the Palsy, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES,

PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pernicious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, near Stock's Market, at 5s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
